FEINBERG TO SPEAK ON 'RIGHTS'
IN UM RECITAL HALL MONDAY

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana philosophy department and Public Exercises Committee will present a lecture on "What Kinds of Beings Can Have Rights?" at 8 p.m. Monday (Oct. 18) in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The speaker will be Dr. Joel Feinberg, professor of philosophy at Rockefeller University, New York City.

The free public lecture Monday evening is sponsored by the Council for Philosophical Studies.

Dr. Feinberg has been a faculty member at Brown and Princeton Universities and at the University of California at Los Angeles. He has been a visiting lecturer at the Universities of Colorado, Michigan, Calgary and at Columbia University.

Dr. Feinberg has publications in fields of legal, political, and social philosophy. His books include "Reason and Responsibility," "Moral Concepts," "Doing and Deserving," and the forthcoming "Social Philosophy."

A number of Dr. Feinberg's articles have been written for or reprinted in standard volumes of selected readings in contemporary ethics, philosophy of law, and social philosophy.
